MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

IN RE: MOHAMMED AHMED HASSAN
ABDALLAH OMRAN LITIGATION

MDL No. 2643

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Before the Panel:* Plaintiff Mohammed Ahmed Hassan Abdallah Omran, who is proceeding pro se, moves the Panel to reconsider our October 9, 2015, order denying plaintiff's motion under 28 U.S.C. § 1407 to centralize the two actions listed on the attached Schedule A in the District of Massachusetts.

Plaintiff argues that reconsideration is warranted because (1) the two cases involve three of the same defendants; (2) plaintiff was a Massachusetts resident at the time of the illegal conduct alleged; (3) the first such conduct occurred in Massachusetts; (4) all other violations of plaintiff's rights stem from that first illegal conduct; and (5) "repeating the same evidence and hearing the same witnesses twice . . . is unnecessary and consolidating and combining the two cases is in the best interest of justice and for the convenience of the witnesses and parties."

After considering plaintiff's arguments, we deny the motion for reconsideration. Absent a significant change in circumstances, the Panel only rarely will reach a different result upon reconsideration. See In re: Fresh Dairy Prods. Antitrust Litig. (No. II), 959 F. Supp. 2d 1361, 1362-63 (J.P.M.L. 2013). Plaintiff has not demonstrated that such a change has occurred in this litigation. Indeed, we fully considered all of plaintiff's arguments in reaching our decision to deny centralization.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for reconsideration is denied.
